Faith Building/Bible Education	Aha: Awakening.Honesty.Action	Kyle Idleman	We've all had an "aha" moment in our lives, an insight that changes everything. With everyday examples and trademark testimonies, Idleman draws on Scripture to reveal how three key elements-awakening, honesty, action-can produce the same kind of "aha!" moment in our spiritual lives.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Basic Jesus: Practicing the Sermon on the Mount	Pastor Jeff Manion	In February 2007, Pastor Manion preached a sermon series from what is commonly called the "Sermon on the Mount." Jesus gave this pivotal message early in His three years of ministry, most likely on a hillside outside the city of Capernaum near the Sea of Galilee. He had just spent 40 days alone in the wilderness being tested by Satan and preparing for His life of teaching and healing. Jesus exited His wilderness experience teaching a singular theme: "turn from your sins and turn to God because the Kingdom of God is near." The "Sermon on the Mount" eloquently expounds on this message.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Beginning in Christ Together-The Life of Jesus	Brett & Dee Eastman		The heart of Christianity is not a ritual or a structure, but a Person-Jesus Christ. Faith Building/Bible Education	Breathe-014	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		With everything that we've got going on every day, how many of us every think about our breathing, about the meaning of breathing? Yet, for thousands of years, people have understand that our physical breath is a picture of a deeper spiritual reality. In the Bible, the word for "breath" is the same as the word for "spirit." There's an inherent dilemma at the core of what makes us human. We've all been created in the image of God and possess immense power and strength. And at the same time our lives are incredibly vulnerable and fragile. Maybe if we had more insight into the meaning of breathing, we would better understand how God created us as human beings.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Bullhorn-009	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	God loves everyone, so a Christian should, too. In fact, Jesus said that the most important thing in life is to love God with everything we've got and love others the same way. But it's not always easy to love everyone around us, is it? Sometimes we strongly disagree with other people's political views, religious beliefs, behaviors, or something else, and it makes it hard to love them when we feel like we're right and they're very wrong. But Jesus doesn't separate loving God and loving others. So maybe the best way for us to show our love for God is actually by loving other people no matter how hard it sometimes is. Maybe it's the only way.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Colossians-Discover the New You	New Community-Bill Hybels with Kevin & Sherry Harney	Let God mold your life. In Colossians, you will discover how to place your lives in the secure hands of God. If you long to experience newness of life, this study will point the way. Faith Building/Bible Education	Corner-023	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	Why is it that often when we get what we want, we still feel empty? We work so hard to succeed, but our lives just end up becoming more about us. Can success turn on us? Can we get caught up in a smaller world where our lives are all about the things that we want? Or is there another way to live? Where life is about more than just us. Where we see people in need and we do something about it. Where our world is expanding because we are sharing our success. And maybe in attempting to save someone else from their suffering, we find out that we are actually the ones being saved.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Dust-008	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Believing in God is important, but what about God believing in us? Believing that we can actually be the kind of people we were meant to be. People of love, compassion, peace, forgiveness, and hope. People who try to do the right thing all of the time. Who act on the endless opportunities around us every day for good, beauty and truth. It's easy for us to sometimes get down on ourselves. To feel "not good enough" or feel like we don't have what it takes. But maybe if we had more insight into the culture that Jesus grew up in and some of the radical things he did, we'd understand the faith that God has in all of us.

And you have a crucial role to play. The Gospel is an Epic, a Drama that has been unfolding now for some time. Journey with John as he explores this Epic in four Acts: Eternal Life of the Trinity, The Villain Enters the Story, The Battle, and Heaven. In this exciting re-telling of the Gospel, you will discover why you love and connect so deeply with movies and the stories that you do. For God has written a story on the human heart, and every other epic we love is inviting us in and telling us about the true Epic-the Story that God is telling.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Facing the Unknown	Mark Batterson	In this four part video series, you'll experience short cinematic videos set in the 21st century that tell the story of Abraham. What did Abraham think and feel when God asked him to take those incredible steps of faith? After each short video, Mark Batterson will teach Biblical principles from Abraham's story and apply those to us today.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Fear God	Francis Chan-Basic Series #1	One of the recurring themes we see in the Bible is the idea of fearing God. When it comes to fearing God, though, it seems like so many in the church today want to reduce this fear to some sort of reverence, or respect, or awe. It's almost like we want to apologize to our culture for having a God who tells us to fear Him. Is the fear that God talks about in the Bible really much more than we want to admit? Could it be that when the Bible says we're to fear God, it's not just respect...that it really means we're to be terrified of him? Could it be that a healthy fear-or terror- of a holy God really is the beginning of wisdom? Could it be that this fear of God is what will ultimately lead us to the life that we were created to live?
Faith Building/Bible Education	Flame-002	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	I love these shoes. Really? The same way I love my wife? What's up with the word "love"? It doesn't have much meaning when we use it so loosely. Maybe we don't really get it. Maybe we don't understand what real love is. What it involves to really love somebody. What it means to give yourself to someone else. We mistake things like friendship, commitment, or lust for love, but God wired us a certain way to experience all that love was really meant to be. Not to hold us back or to make us miss out on the best that life has to offer. God created love, and wants us to feel it all in the way it's meant to be felt.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Follow Jesus	Francis Chan-Basic Series #2		What does Jesus mean when He tells us to follow Him? Are we supposed to just agree with what He says, or does He really mean we're supposed to do the things He did and live the life He lived? Once we understand how to follow Jesus, we see the hard life that might be in store for us, and then the real question becomes not how, but why we would want to follow Him in the first place.

Questions like these are hardly academic-they're gut wrenching cry of a world consumed with unendurable pain and ugliness. Something about this life is so terribly broken that only God can fix it. So why doesn't he-or has he...is he.. And will he?

Faith Building/Bible Education	Jesus' Secrets Revealed-Winning at Life	Reality Check Series-Mark Ashton		What does it take to win at life? A good education? A lucrative career? A loving family? Winning at Life revisits six of those stories. Some will challenge you. Some will encourage you. All of them offer a clearer vision of what life is really about.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Just Walk Across The Room	Bill Hybels		Just a few steps and a friendly hello may be all it takes to change someone's life-and their eternity. Faith Building/Bible Education	Kickball-006	Nooma Series-Kickball		We always think we know what's missing from our lives in order to really make us happy, don't we? If only I had that car, or that job, or if only I could lose those 15 lbs., then I'd be happy. Really? How often do we want something only to find out that it wasn't that great after that? Sometimes we ask God for things and if he doesn't deliver right away, we start questioning whether God really understands or even cares. Do we really trust God? Do we trust that God is good and sees a bigger picture than we ever could? It's easy to want what's right in front of us, but maybe God knows what's better for us, and sometimes we just can't see it.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Living Beyond Myself: Launching a Volunteer Revolution	Bill Hybels		Living Beyond Myself issues an invitation to each person: Take the "great gamble" of serving others and see if it doesn't pay big dividends. Take Christ at His Word and offer yourself up for the sake of other people, and then assess whether or not you feel more fulfilled, more passionate about your gifts, and more convinced of your calling.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Luggage-007	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Maybe a friend turned his or her back on you. Maybe someone you loved betrayed you. We all have wounds and we end up carrying around these things that people have done to us for weeks, months, and sometimes even years. It isn't always easy to forgive these people and after a while these hurts can get really heavy. So the only way to feel better seems to be somehow getting back at the people that hurt us, to get revenge. But does revenge ever truly satisfy? Maybe forgiving isn't something you do for someone else to let them off the hook. Maybe forgiveness is about you. God didn't create you to carry these wounds around. God created you to be free.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Lump-010	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		A lot of us have done things in our lives that we're ashamed of. Some are small things, and some of us have really big and devastating things. Some of us even have things that people close to us don't know about. Personal junk that we keep to ourselves so we don't have to deal with it. Because we don't know how to deal with it, do we? We're afraid that if we try it's just going to make everything worse. But no matter how big our junk is, no matter how much what we've done has impacted the way other people feel about us or how we feel about ourselves, it hasn't changed how God feels about us. God loves us, he always has and always will, and there's nothing we can do to change that.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Matthew-012	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Suffering the loss of someone we love can be the most difficult thing in life to deal with. One moment we have them and the next they're gone. What are we supposed to do? How are we supposed to feel? The truth is, there's no certain way we're "supposed" to feel. Whatever we're feeling, it's OK. And if we don't feel anything at all, that's OK too. It's OK to have no answers and no explanations. Because sometimes all the reasoning and comforting words in the world just aren't what we need. What might help us, however, is to understand how Jesus dealt with this kind of loss.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Name-018	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		We all compare ourselves to others. We spend our lives wondering what others think and say about us. Some of us even wish we were someone else. We question why we are the way we are and not the way we wish we could be. Some of us have let the expectations of others dictate who we've become. We act a certain way to be accepted but know that we're being untrue. But why are we so concerned with what other people think, say, or look like? What does it say about us if we are unable to accept who we are? Maybe if we really knew our true selves, we wouldn't give so much attention to other peoples' lives and live more in tune with the life God wants for us.

Faith Building/Bible Education	No Plan B	Todd Phillips		In this four part video series, Todd Phillips travels to Rwanda and the Republic of Congo to explore how he will make a difference to people looking for hope and help. From the villages and refugee camps of the region, Todd uses Biblical teaching to reveal the important role God has for each of us to rescue the world.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Noise-005	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Why is silence so hard to deal with? Why is it so much easier for us to live our lives with a lot of things going on all the time than to just be in silence? We're constantly surrounded with "voices" that are influencing us on how to think, feel and behave. Movies, music, TV, internet, cell phones and a never-ending barrage of advertising. There's always something going on. Always noise in our lives. But maybe there's a connection between the amount of noise in our lives and our inability to hear God. If God sometimes feels distant to us, maybe it's not because he's not talking to us, but simply because we aren't really listening.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Not a Fan.	Kyle Idleman		Twenty times in the New Testament, Jesus issued a compelling and challenging invitation to Follow Him. He's not interested in mere fans. He wants Completely Committed Followers. This unconventional small group experience is a cinematic journey through a series of six mini-movies providing a unique perspective to help shape today's believer into a first century Christ-follower.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Open-019	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Many of us have experienced situations where we've prayed and it felt like God wasn't listening. And yet other times we've prayed or known someone that prayed and the situation changed. Does God answer prayer? Sometimes, but not all the time? Or does God always answer prayer and it's just that sometimes God says no? Some of us are angry with God for not answering the prayers we've prayed for years. Why did he answer their prayer but not ours? What if there's more to prayer than just God listening and answering? Maybe if we understood how Jesus prayed, our concepts and expectations of prayer would change.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Powerful Encounters with the Real Jesus-Sudden Impact	Reality Check Series-Mark Ashton		Whatever your opinion is of Jesus, you can't deny his impact. Men left their careers to follow him. Prostitutes and extortionists reformed their ways. Grief-stricken women regained lost loved ones. One religious leader sought his wisdom while others sought to kill him. Taking a compelling look at six very different encounters with Jesus and their impact on real, flesh-and-blood people, Sudden Impact helps you consider how you might respond if Jesus entered your world and turned it upside down.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Pursuing Spiritual Authenticity: Life-Changing Words from the Prophets	John Ortberg-Old Testament Challenge Series #4		The words of the prophets trumpet across the centuries, calling us to authentic spiritual lives. God longs to see his character mirrored in each of us. This small group study takes you through the words of the prophets and unveils the truths that will help you enter new levels of spiritual maturity.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Rain-001	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Things don't always work out the way we want them to, or the way we think they will. Sometimes we don't even see it coming. We get hit with some form of pain out of nowhere leaving us feeling desperate and helpless. That's the way life is. Still, it makes us wonder how God can let these things happen to us. How God can just stand by and watch us suffer. Where is God when it really hurts? Maybe it's when we're in these situations, where everything seems to be falling apart, that God gets an opportunity to remind us of how much he really loves us.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Rhythm-011	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	What does it mean to have a relationship with God? What does it look like? For a lot of us it's a hard thing to fully understand. If God is an infinite spirit with no shape or form, how can we possibly relate to that? And what about Jesus? He said he came to give everyone life in its fullest. He came to show us how to live. Maybe it's trusting Jesus and living the kind of life he taught us to live-a life of truth, love, justice, compassion, forgiveness, and sacrifice-that we have a relationship with God. Maybe the way we live every day, every single choice we make, determines how in tune with God we are.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Rich-013	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	There's a popular bumper sticker that reads "God Bless America," but hasn't America already been blessed? It's easy for us to fall into a mindset of viewing "our" world as "the" world, because it's all we generally see. We're constantly bombarded with images of the latest styles and models of everything, and it can easily leave us feeling like what we have isn't enough because we see people that have even more than us. But how does what we have compare to what most people in the world have? Maybe what we have is enough; maybe it's more than enough. Maybe God has blessed us with everything we have so we can bless and give to others.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Romans, The Constitution of Your Faith! Freed From The Power of Sin	Kay Arthur/In and Out Bible Study Series	This study is heavy on application, so it would be to your advantage to review your study early in the week so that you make sure you have adequate time to do whatever is required in "living it out". Faith Building/Bible Education	She-021	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		We didn't have anything to do with our birth. We are all here because some woman somewhere gave us life. Her pain, her effort, for our life. And when a mother gives like that to a child, she is showing us what God is like. But sometimes this part of God's nature is overlooked. A lot of us are comfortable with male imagery for God. But what about female imagery for God? Is God limited to a gender? Or does God transcend and yet include what we know as male and female? Maybe if we were more aware of the female imagery for God we would have a better understanding of who God is and what God is like.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Shells-020	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		Do you often find yourself saying, "I'm so busy" or "I just have so much to do"? It's easy to get overwhelmed with appointments, gathering, to-do lists. But what are we really doing with our time? Many of us are running from place to place and it seems like life is just passing us by. We're doing so many things, a little bit of everything, and yet it doesn't feel like much of a life. But most of us find it hard to say no. We feel obligated. There are so many good things to do. So many good causes to join. But while we're busy doing all these good things, are we missing out on something great? Maybe saying no would be easier if we knew what it means to say yes.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Starting Point: Find Your Place in the Story	Andy Stanley		This is an exploration of the Bible's grand story and where you fit into the narrative. Whether you're new to the Christian faith, simply curious about it, or reexamining what it means to have a relationship with God, you'll appreciate this conversational small group environment. Come as you are and build relationships with others as you embark on this journey. But don't be intimidated by the subject matter. Ultimately, the Bible is God's story-an epic narrative about his desire for a relationship with you.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Store-016	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	We all get angry about things from time to time-some of us more often than others. For some of us, it feels like we're constantly on the brink of losing it, where it doesn't take much to get angry about anything. And this kind of anger can be seen everywhere we go-at work, in traffic, at the store, at home. But what is really at its root? Anger is often looked at as a bad thing, but are there things actually worth getting angry about? Maybe if we had a better understanding of our anger and where it comes from, we can learn how to channel it toward something constructive-something that's bigger than ourselves.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Sunday-004	Nooma Series-Rob Bell	Why do we do the things we do? Why do we go to church or give money away? Because we're supposed to or because we think God needs it? Do we honestly put on our best clothes for an hour once a week, stand and sit at all the right times, and sing all the appropriate songs for God's sake, or because it'll make us look better to the world around us? We're tired of all the empty rituals and routines. And so is God. God hates it when we call ourselves Christians but ignore all the things he really cares about. He hates it when we go through hollow religious routines out of some feeling of duty or obligation. God doesn't want the meaningless rituals. God wants our hearts.
Faith Building/Bible Education	The Journey: Travels of Paul	Paul Niekerk	In this study, our attention turns to Paul. Once a persecutor of Christians, he becomes one of the strongest leaders and ambassadors for Jesus in all of history. He took the Good News of Jesus to new places, new cultures, and to all people. The Journey is written in seven chapters. It is designed to be your journal as you journey with Paul through Acts. Each chapter consists of two or three Personal Entries designed for a quiet time during your day. As you work through the personal entries and the other elements of the journal, you will be prepared to participate in a vibrant small group discussion. The series of questions in this section are designed to guide your group toward a personal, purposeful destination.

Faith Building/Bible Education	The Story of the Christ	Phil Niekerk/Jeff Manion	It's important that you know how this study guide works. The goal is to have a fresh, new encounter with Jesus. Please understand, The Story of the Christ is not a comprehensive study on the life of Christ. It's also not a deep examination of Jesus' teachings. Rather, it is a journey into the story of Jesus from the time of His baptism, through his public ministry and to His death, resurrection and return to heaven. You will see the narrative progression of the last three years of Jesus' life and you will be able to place yourself in the setting of these astounding events.
Faith Building/Bible Education	The Story of the First Church	Phil Niekerk	In this study, our focus is on twelve chapters, Acts 1-12. Though the passage is shorter than in previous studies, these pivotal chapters tell the story of a significant transition in God's redemptive plan with mankind. The Holy Spirit takes center stage as the power source for God's people to spread the Good News of Jesus across the planet. The Story of the First Church is written in six chapters. Each chapter contains three daily encounters designed for a quiet time during your day. Each Daily encounter has a journal idea, a key verse, some questions to ponder and something to do. Also in each chapter, you'll find Continuing the Story, which gives you ideas for further exploration on the subjects covered in the chapter. Some of these ideas will be other passages of Scripture to read that further illuminate the stories covered in that chapter. There will also be creative ideas taken from today's culture and media that may help you see the principles taught in the chapter through a different window. These ideas may include music, art, movies and books to read. Each week there will be more ideas than you'll probably want to do in a short period of time. So, choose the ideas that will be most meaningful for you and mark the ones you want to do later.

Faith Building/Bible Education	Today-017	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		How much time and energy do we spend wishing things were how they used to be? We often think about times in our past when things were different and want our lives to be like that again. Some of us have even come to believe that our best days may actually be behind us. But if we're in some way hung up on the past, what does that mean for our lives now? How are we and those around us affected if we're not fully present? If we're longing for the way things used to be, what does that really say about our understanding and appreciation of our lives today? Maybe we need to learn to embrace our past for what it is, in order to live our lives to the fullest, right here, right now.
Faith Building/Bible Education	Tomato-022	Nooma Series-Rob Bell		We all get consumed with ourselves; sometimes we're not even aware of it. We learn from a young age that life is about winning and impressing. We pick up that our worth and value come from how good, how smart, and how skilled we are. So, we twist things in our favor, making us look like we have it all together. Every day we have the choice to prop up these false ideas about ourselves or to let go of them. Jesus invites these parts of us to die, the parts of us that tell us our worth comes from the things we say and do. Maybe it's only when we let these things die, that we truly begin to live.
